PLAZA HOTEL HOSTS DOWNTOWN'S NEW YEAR'S EVE FIREWORKS: THINK BIG

*Historic Celebration Marks the First Time
Downtown Las Vegas Has Hosted Fireworks Since 1994*

Las Vegas, Nev. – The Plaza Hotel & Casino will be hosting the only Downtown Las Vegas fireworks extravaganza from its rooftop this New Year's Eve 2007 as part of "America's Party." The celebration will mark the first time Downtown Las Vegas has hosted fireworks in 13 years. The Plaza was the last property to ever host fireworks for downtown revelers, and the last time was December 31, 1994. The fireworks are being sponsored by the Plaza, Las Vegas Club and Pyrotecnico.

The huge 15 minute-plus fireworks display put on by Pyrotecnico begins at 12:30 a.m. and will be the biggest and best show seen this New Year's Eve in Las Vegas. It will be synchronized to music playing along the entire five blocks of the infamous Fremont Street Experience and will coincide with the Plaza's and the Las Vegas Club's free parties on property as well as with New Year's Eve's biggest and best private party in all of Las Vegas, with The Doobie Brothers and The Bangles performing live on Fremont Street. "The Best is Yet to Come" is the theme for the Las Vegas New Year's Eve party along the Las Vegas Strip and the Fremont Street Experience.

"We didn't want to just bring back fireworks to Downtown Las Vegas, we want to bring it back big," said Plaza Spokesman Mark Fierro. "This is going to be New Year's fireworks on a grand scale. The Plaza has a reputation for knowing how to throw a real party, and this is going to be a free Downtown Las Vegas party to remember. The Plaza is perfectly located for a big fireworks show that is really going to leave a blow out impression. There is a great vibe happening downtown, and if you haven't been lately, you haven't seen a real Las Vegas party."

The Plaza offers an array of classic and innovative table games and slot machines, Las Vegas' only ultra sports lounge called the Dome, and a great variety of amenities including a roof top swimming pool and tennis courts.
