Plaza Hotel & Casino to celebrate July 4th with live fireworks show at 10 p.m. Old School Fun and American Heroes packages offer getaway savings

LAS VEGAS – Located in the heart of Downtown Las Vegas, the Plaza Hotel & Casino will again celebrate the Fourth of July with downtown Las Vegas’ only live fireworks show at 10 p.m. on Saturday, July 4.

Staged from multiple locations on the Plaza’s roofs and towers, the spectacular fireworks display will be an amazing show for people downtown and visible for miles beyond. To allow for prime viewing of the fireworks and increased pedestrian traffic, Main Street will be closed to vehicular traffic for a limited time from Carson Avenue to Ogden Avenue.

“Hosting an amazing fireworks show that lights up the downtown sky for the Fourth of July has become a tradition for us at the Plaza, and this year is no different,” said Jonathan Jossel, CEO of the Plaza Hotel & Casino. “Whether you are downtown resident at home or a guest at the Plaza joining us for dinner at Oscar’s steakhouse or games on the casino floor, our Independence Day fireworks show is a great way to celebrate our country and an awe-inspiring sight for the entire downtown Las Vegas community to enjoy.”

The Plaza is offering two special getaway packages for the holiday weekend.

The Plaza’s Old School Fun package available online with promo code FUN20 celebrates the reopening by offering guests who book by Aug. 31 for a stay before Dec. 29 the lowest available room rates, $25 daily food and beverage credit, $75 “Sizzling Summer Bingo” match play and $10 free slot play as well as complimentary hotel room upgrade and early check-in / late check-out (both based on availability).

The Plaza also increased its American Heroes discount to 20 percent off prevailing rates for both weekday and weekend stays and expanded it to include all active duty military, veterans, police officers, fire/rescue members, first responders, medical / hospital workers and teachers. This discount is also available for online booking with promo code HERO.
