A special Oscar's Dinner Series on Wednesday, April 7 Eat like the stars ate, a tribute to the making of the movie "Casino"

LAS VEGAS – In tribute to the blockbuster movie "Casino," former Las Vegas Mayor and mob attorney, Oscar B. Goodman will hold a special edition of the Oscar's Dinner Series at Oscar's Steakhouse at the Plaza Hotel & Casino inside the restaurant's iconic glass dome on Wednesday, April 7.

Attendees will enjoy a special dinner with Goodman, as he recalls his personal experience filming the movie, which celebrated its 25th anniversary last December.

The April 7 dinner menu will recreate the meal that Oscar's wife, current city of Las Vegas Mayor Carolyn Goodman cooked and served at their home to the Casino cast, including Robert De Niro, Sharon Stone, and Joe Pesci, when the movie was filmed in Las Vegas.

The special dinner will start with a cocktail hour at 6 p.m. in Oscar's lounge. Guests will then join Goodman at 7 p.m. inside the dome overlooking the lights of Fremont Street for a three-course plated dinner paired with red and white wines as well as the signature Oscar Goodman Martini.

Individual tickets to the Oscar's Dinner Series are typically $150 each. However, due to social distancing and capacity requirements, Oscar's will only be selling a limited number of tables for parties of two people ($300), four ($600) and six ($900), for the April 7 dinner. Tables can be purchased online at <http://plazahotelcasino.com/dinner-series>.

The Oscar's Dinner Series are special dinner events held throughout the year that bring historic Vegas to life through the tales of former city of Las Vegas Mayor and mob attorney, Oscar B. Goodman.

About Oscar's steakhouse

Named after former Las Vegas Mayor Oscar Goodman, Oscar's steakhouse is a glamorous and uniquely Las Vegas steakhouse inside the iconic dome of the Plaza Hotel and Casino that overlooks the lights of Fremont Street and downtown Las Vegas. Oscar's features perfectly aged steaks cooked over a 600-degree grill and accompanied by high-quality, made-from-scratch sides. Oscar's also offers a wide variety of delicious, hand-crafted cocktails, including martinis, the former mayor's signature drink.
