“Studio 71” photo space at the Plaza Hotel & Casino opens July 1 Space offers one-of-a-kind back drop for selfies and group shots

LAS VEGAS – In celebration of its 50th anniversary, the Plaza Hotel & Casino will open on July 1 its “Studio 71” corner that will offer a one-of-a-kind disco inspired photo space. From showgirls and dice to roller skates and mirrored balls, the neon and LED-lit backdrops pay homage to the early years of the Plaza’s history, the golden era of 1970s known for disco, bright colors, and the ubiquitous style of Studio 54.

Located near the dome entrance and adjacent to the casino floor, the space will offer multiple backdrops for fun, creative, and memorable selfies and group photos that guests can take of themselves. The Plaza encourages guests to then share the pictures on social media, such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter, tagging @PlazaLasVegas.

The Plaza’s Studio 71 will be open from noon to midnight on Saturdays and Sundays and 4 p.m. to midnight Monday through Friday from July 1 through the end of December.

The space is designed and fabricated by Las Vegas-based Destinations by Design and will be free for guests to enjoy using their own cell phones and cameras to take the photos.
