OSCAR B. GOODMAN

Named after former Las Vegas Mayor Oscar B. Goodman, Oscar's Steakhouse is a glamorous and uniquely Las Vegas steakhouse inside the iconic dome of the Plaza Hotel and Casino that overlooks the lights of Fremont Street and downtown Las Vegas.

The approach to food and service at Oscar's Steakhouse is the same as Goodman's approach to life -eat, drink and have fun! Led by the Plaza Hotel & Casino's esteemed Executive Chef, Benjamin Jenkins, who boasts years of expert culinary experience and a commitment to sourcing the highest quality products, Oscar's offers an authentic steakhouse ambiance with diverse cuts of beef, classic seafood options and traditional sides while highlighting modern dining trends.

✦ ————— ✦

Born July 1939 in Philadelphia and a graduate from The Haverford School and the University of Pennsylvania Law School, Oscar Goodman moved to Las Vegas and was admitted to the Nevada State Bar Association in 1965. He became one of the nation's best criminal defense attorneys, named one the "15 Best Trial Lawyers in America" by the National Law Journal. A review of his 'connected' list of clients also makes him notorious - Meyer Lansky, Nicky Scarfo, Herbert "Fat Herbie" Blitzstein, Phil Leonetti, Jamiel "Jimmy" Chagra, Anthony "Tony the Ant" Spilotro, and former Stardust Casino boss, Frank "Lefty" Rosenthal.

From noted mob attorney to the Mayor of Las Vegas, Goodman was sworn in June 1999 and served the maximum of three terms or twelve years, securing over 80 percent of the vote in every election. The self-proclaimed "Happiest Mayor in the Universe," Goodman was known for his trademark tell-it-like-it-is approach and a vision for Downtown Las Vegas that led to continued revitalization and growth. Goodman then had the distinct pleasure of swearing in his wife, Carolyn Goodman, as his successor.

After his tenure as mayor, Goodman has remained active in the Las Vegas community. He is Las Vegas' primary ambassador as chairman of the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority (LVCA) Host Committee, which welcomes major conventions and special events to the city and takes a leading role in educating the community on the importance of tourism to the local economy.

Goodman also has taken up acting by playing himself on an episode of the primetime hit series "CSI Las Vegas" and in the movie "Casino" in which he represented "Ace Rothstein," a character based on Lefty Rosenthal and played by Robert DeNiro. He also treasures the fact that Oscar's Steakhouse in the heart of downtown inside the iconic Plaza glass dome bears his name and can often be found dining- always with his signature martini in hand.
